

Do not interpretations belong to God? Genesis 40:8

5/9/08

Dream:

I was sitting in a man's house. I perceived that I was there to learn something and to join a group to fight against something. He led me to a room that had some type of small dungeon under a bed. It wasn't visible to the eye. I could hear deep voices from this dungeon saying, "Why can't we go out yet? Let us go now." But another deep voice said, "It's not time yet." I could hear them banging on the wall. It seemed as if it was going to cave in soon. I was getting an eerie feeling about it. I knew that whatever was behind the wall was powerful and evil. Then I walked out the front door and began to water one section of the front lawn. I had planted some flowers and I wanted them to grow.

Interpretation:

The Holy Ghost is providing spiritual revelation of the evil that is to come. This evil wants to be released from the pit of hell, but the Spirit is restraining the release of this condition upon the face of the earth. The LORD Jesus is encouraging the body of Christ to nourish the gifts (weapons) that he has given us to fight this battle with the word. Those that prepare are the chosen to fight the battle. Sharpen the sword and prepare for battle for the day is at hand!!!!!!
